

Sudbury - Oct. 30th 1839.

My Dear Mrs. Chapman -

Myself & daughters had prepared a small bundle for the Fair, & I was intending to be in the city this morning but ill health prevents, so I shall try & send a part of the things - hoping that they will be acceptable. Though I know so little of the value of them I shall not attempt to fix a price - but rely wholly upon your judgment & kindness to do it. May the Lord bless all your endeavours. We should be glad to see you in Sudbury - very glad - May we hope ever to hear your voice pleading for the poor slave - here. It might possibly rouse the people from their lethargy - though I think it would take something exceeding powerful to do it. C.C. Burleigh had not the power, & I fear no human being has. May God visit us in His might! He alone is Almighty -!

Yours in the cause of universal liberty

Lucy A. Browne.

Handwritten text, possibly a signature or date, in the center of the page.

Ms. A. 9.2.12.70

Mrs. Maria W. Chapman -
25 Cornhill, Boston -

Lucy A. Brown
Jan 1839